“I want to send my condolences to all of you Samantha and the kids, and for Beto's family, my heart goes out to all of you at this time of loss, I felt like our time together was too short, but the time we had together made me feel like we were more family than just friends, I will always remember him and know that he was a great man. My heart goes out to you and your little ones. Sending love and prayers.. love you guys..”
