“ "I will forever cherish the Blessing granted me these past months as you prepared for your eternal journey. I will forever cherish our beautiful prayer time, the joyful music we listened to, the stories of your youth, the relationship with your sisters, your dad, and mother, Frances. I will forever cherish our many discussions after reading a Bible verse or a book which impacted our heart and soul. I will forever cherish reading the whimsical tales you created as part of the Herrick Public Library writer's group. I will forever think of you when the sun filters through the window blinds; just as it did when you left us. I will forever think of you when I read Proverbs 31:10-31 "The Wife of Noble Character" "A wife of noble character who can find? She is worth far more than rubies. Her husband has full confidence in her and lacks nothing of value. She brings him good, not harm, all the days of her life. . . ." Now, it is I, who looks forward with Faith, Hope, and Love. Now, it is I, who is filled with Peace knowing you are with our Redeemer. Now, it is I, who gives Thanks and Praise to God Almighty, for I was Blessed to be one of your daughters and you are my beloved Mother. . . . for ever and ever. Amen."

“What a beautiful woman your mother was! I so enjoyed working with her at the Wooden Shoe Factory, her kindness was shared with everyone and she was a friend to all who had the pleasure of knowing her. Her faith was the light that shined for all to see. Celeste, dear friend, you and your family are in my prayers. May God wrap His loving arms around you and comfort you as you celebrate your mother's life and her entrance into her heavenly home. Love you! Connie Beckman”

“Blessings upon the entire Molner family. Alberta was a loved and valued member of our Herrick Library Writers Group where she shared many stories and much of her life. She always strived to improve her writing skills. She began with wonderful memoir type stories, then expanded into delightful fantasy-fiction filled with elves, Leprechauns, and many other exciting characters. We miss our fellow author; we miss her helpful critiques of our work; and we miss our friend. Thank you God for the gift of Alberta Molner to our lives.”

“"This candle I light for you my beautiful Mother, whose writing inspiration will burn within me, your baby daughter, for the rest of my enlightened, blessed life because of you. You used to say, "I don't know where all of my children received their artistic talents, but it certainly wasn't from me" Ohhh Mama, how so very wrong you were! You had many secret talents, that we, your children, can only hope to emulate. Your great love for Jesus & prayerful countenance you & Dad emulated is a legacy I can only hope to pass on to your grand & great grandchildren; but I vow to try with the stories you entrusted to me."
