Lexi was a loving and loved daughter, sister, and granddaughter. She attended Kendall College of Art and Design for two years, majoring in illustration of book covers. She currently was working as a server at Applebee's and will be remembered by her loved ones for her artistic and empathetic nature, her self-less, inclusive character, and her big heart.

Lexi was a very colorful and expressive person. She was the artistic sibling, and that was reflected with the many different hair colors she had throughout the years. She also had a love for music and attended many concerts. She will be dearly missed.

Lexi was preceded in passing by her great grandmother, Elvira Diaz; her great aunt, Martina Villareal; and her cousin, Lisa Velenzuela.

Lexi is survived by her parents: Raul & Elena (Grimaldo) Salas; siblings: Emilio Salas, Angelica Salas, Gabriel Salas; grandparents: David & Gilda

Grimaldo, Olga Salas, Luis Salas; many aunts, uncles, cousins; special cousin, Alyssa Grimaldo; and good friend, Jennifer Brender.
