“ I recently learned of Andy's passing and wanted to share that it was an honor to know him and Joyce while I served as chaplain at Royal Atrium Inn. I retired the end of August and remember saying "Goodbye" to them in the dining room. I grew up in Bentheim and remember them from that small town. They endured a lot of hardship and did it with grace and resilience. It was truly an honor to know Andy. My sympathies and prayers to Joyce and all of Andy's loved ones. Sincerely, Cindy (Yonker) Nyhoff, chaplain

“ My name is Naomi Lunsford and I worked very closely with Joyce and Andy “Ana” at the atrium. Andy was the joy of my day and reminded me a lot of my own grandfather. Whether he was tickling me, making fun of me, or telling me he loved me I always had a good time in the Krommendyk room. I loved sneaking him Dutch candies and telling him all the Dutch words I know and making each other laugh in the dining room. He will be dearly missed and will forever have a place in my heart. My deepest condolences.
