“ I went to Compass with Andrew and had the privilege of working with him on several local film productions. We also hung out and played tabletop games together occasionally. He was very sweet and an all-around great guy to be around. A hard worker and a great friend. I'm going to miss his jokes and his personality. Andrew was a good man and will be missed dearly.

“ I worked with Andrew. He was such a kind, quiet guy. We would talk about sports and family. He had an Amazing Aunt that would bring a dinner to both his brother and him. Boy did he love her food. I will miss his sweet spirit here at Gentex. However, the blessing of knowing him will live in our hearts. I know he's in a much better place, may God's peace be with each of his family knowing this.

“ Andrew's openness and calm kind demeanor at Compass was always such a presence whenever he was around. I worked with him doing sound and production and he was always very receptive to feedback and learning so much more about what he was passionate about. He's definitely one of the people I think of during my short time in film school and have been so blessed to have gotten to spend time with him. Rest in peace, you are loved, Andrew.

“ Although I didn't know Andrew well, I do remember him always being incredibly kind. Always willing to lend a helping hand wherever he saw it needed. We attended film school together for the year I was there. It's easy for me to forget people & I didn't forget Andrew. Saying a prayer for family and the ones closer to him.
