

Angkhana "Jackie" Dabandon

May 16, 1979 - May 16, 2018

Angkhana "Jackie" Dabandon, 39, of Algonquin, Illinois, formerly of Holland, Michigan, died unexpectedly on Wednesday, May 16, 2018, at her home. Jackie was born in Thailand to Nitha Iwanaga and Khouthong Dabandon on December 18, 1979. She was first and foremost a devoted mother to her children Jadah and Jaron Dabandon. We celebrate her life honoring that she was a jack of all trades to her family, friends, and peers. She loved to travel and always made it a priority to make rounds to see family and friends across the states from California, Georgia, Illinois, Kansas, New Jersey, Texas, Wisconsin, and more. Jackie had a charismatic and outgoing personality, she was someone who attracted people wherever she went and had an infectious laugh. She will be greatly missed by her daughter Jadah Dabandon, and her son Jaron Dabandon, nephew Preston Silakhom, nieces McKenna Silakhom and Ti'ella Dabandon. Her mother Nitha Iwanaga, her father Khouthong Dabandon, siblings: Alex, Lee, Jaylin, Paviti, Victor Dabandon, and Kenichi Iwanaga. As well as her many elders, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and extended family.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00 pm (Eastern Time) on Monday, May 21, 2018, at Langeland-Sterenbergh Funeral Home, 315 E. 16th Street, Holland MI 49423. Visitation will be from 4:00pm - 7:00pm (Eastern Time) SUNDAY, May 20, 2018, also at the funeral home.
