“ Where to begin. We have had so many good times together. Me and even my kids played many games with her. She loved it when we would visit her and she would give us tea and cookies and she had a candy drawer that we could choose from. She even tried to teach me how to play the organ. I couldn't get my hands and feet to work together. She was very kind and generous. She loved writing poems. She loved the Lord Jesus Christ and her life displayed that. My prayers are with you Byron, Philip and Nancy and family during this time. May God grant you peace. I am sure she had a welcoming party in Heaven.
