“ I am so grateful to have known Art and I also remember his wife Carrie while they lived at Royal Atrium Inn. Such lovely people and a blessing to all who knew them. Art always came to weekly services until just the last few months as his health failed. He had the firmest handshake after services and always had a complimentary comment that gave evidence that he had been listening carefully to the message. He knew the scriptures and lived a life of service for the Lord. Deepest sympathies to all of Art's loved ones. Sincerely, Cindy Nyhoff, Royal Park chaplain

What an amazing man. Always so kind and appreciative of everything I did for him. A man devoted to God. He loved his family deeply too. Carrie was also a special kind lady. They loved each other so much and now get to spend eternity ❤️ together. Sending love and prayers for peace for your family.

Art and Carrie were folks we loved for many years...Carrie was my Sunday school teacher and what she taught me still comes back today.. We would visit them and they always welcomed us into their home..They made our memories of Drenthe ones we cherish... They were so proud of their sons and their families...
