I rang bells, line danced, and performed in a few Tilip Time shows, and periodically checked Barb in at Evergreen Commons. Always delightful uplifting experiences. The Angel Band gains a beautiful Soul. She will be missed. Jauanna Jackson

“ Just watched the lovely tribute video for Aunt Barb. All of the pictures were great. I am so sorry for your loss. My memory of Aunt Barb was that she was ALWAYS smiling and laughing no matter what. She was a kind soul and always welcoming and nonjudgmental to everyone. I do remember being the flower girl at their wedding and thinking that Aunt Barb looked like a princess. So sorry that we could not get to her funeral. Take care, love Tammy, Jeff and kids.

“ We were neighbors with Gord and Barb at Sandy Pines about 20 years ago. We shared so many good times and laughs. As life got busy and we both sold our places at SP, we made sure the 4 of us met for supper or we would pick up a pizza and hang out at their house a few times a year. The way we will always remember Barb is smiling. She was always smiling and just a happy lady. Imagine how much bigger that smile got when she came face to face with our Lord!!! Gord- we love you and will miss Barb. We will always cherish the memories the 4 of us made.

“ When I would occasionally visit the Mummert house during my high school years, Mike's mom always had the most cheerful and pleasant greeting for me, and never failed to express her genuine care for my entire family.
