“Ray and Family, Your wife, mother, grandmother and our co-worker, was an incredibly upbeat and caring person. I remember when I returned to Perrigo after being gone 15 years, that Barb made a point to come up to me after a meeting we attended together to tell me she was so glad to see my smiling face...that meant the world to me! Because I always thought Barb lit up whatever room she walked into! Cherish her memory and know many are praying for your comfort and peace.”
