“ I am grateful to have known Bea - she was a woman of deep faith and convictions and had experienced so much in her century of life. She loved her family - I still have a picture she shared with me of her doilies in round hoops arranged as a piece of art. I have doilies from my mom that I hope to do this with. Bea is already missed at Royal Park and Atrium. My sympathies to all of her loved ones. Sincerely, Cindy Nyhoff, Chaplain

“ I remember Bea from Field's as she helped with picking out fabric for several Dutch costumes. She had a vast knowledge of the right lace or thread to use depending on what you were making.

I didn't know she was my Uncle Harverd's sister until I read this, I wish I had known when she worked at Field's. She was a very kind and generous woman who loved helping others out.

Uncle Harverd & Aunt Evelyn I am so sorry for your loss. She lived a very long life that not many get to experience. May she rest in peace and be experiencing the joys of heaven.
