“ "Kevin, when were hanging out all through middle and high school your mother was always so nice and sweet to me when we were at your house. I was not able to make visitation, but I wanted you to know how wonderful I thought your mother was. I was really sad to hear of your loss. You and your family have my condolence."

“Bryan and I used to see your Mom and Dad, Kevin, as you were building your house way back when. Those were long ago memories. We chatted from time to time. I love that they passed on to you your Christian heritage. The blessing for those who die in Christ is the wonderful promise that you will meet again. Hold on to that truth and treasure the earthly memories. Blessings to your whole family. - Bryan and Brenda Roels”
