“ "You brought our families here to Michigan and changed all our destinies. You were the leader, you lead by example. You showed us how to forgive and you wanted everyone you loved to succeed. We lived and loved and had our beautiful children were here in Michigan. We shared wonderful family time together. I will forever be grateful for your unconditional love. You taught me so much. You were the hardest working woman I have ever met. You stayed strong until the Good Lord called you home. Rest in Peace mi Tia, la quiero mucho."
