“ "I, too, sang in the Holland Chorale with Beth. She was one of the first people you met, as she was the music librarian. She always had a sunny smile and was just one of the sweetest people you could ever know. What a lovely lady! She will be missed."

“*"So very sorry to learn of Beth's passing. Rhonda, I don't know if you'll remember me or not, but my maiden name was Van Slooten, and Jerry was my dad. He and your dad worked together in the City Clerk's office. We also lived on East 35th Street, and you were my piano teacher when I was in elementary school. I've seen your mom again over the last several years, as she has come to my church's Christmas choir concert at First Reformed Church in Holland (I am a member of the choir). She would always make a point of talking to me afterwards. It was so good to see her again after all these years.
Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear mom."*

“"Beth was the best librarian the Chorale could have had. I don't ever remember a time she messed up our pile of music every fall. So kind and yet forceful when we didn't get our music back to her. She kept her little notes coming until she got the music. She will be missed! Keep that angel choir in line, Beth!!"

“*"Beth was a sweetheart! I truly enjoyed working with her at the Holland Chorale and will miss her willing spirit.
I am proud to have called her a friend. Julia Johnson, Holland Chorale."*

“I had the pleasure of sitting next to Beth in the alto section of the Holland Chorale for many years. It was a delight to get to know her, and everyone in the Holland Chorale appreciates her years of dedication and service as our librarian. We feel her loss, and offer your our heartfelt sympathy and prayers. She was a great lady!”

“Oh, how I will miss Beth. I had the distinct pleasure of singing with her in the Holland Chorale. And she was our librarian for a long time doing an amazing job! She actually sang with my mom in a quartet in Fremont many years ago so she became someone very special to me having that connection. She shared her love of music with me and was a kind hearted soul. She will always be remembered as an amazing lady!”
