“ We met Braxton when Brinzie went to Eagle Crest with our kids. What a tough little dude who toddled around the school with such determination and freedom in his mini walker. The joy that he spread is unforgettable from that time all those years ago, through middle school and on to high school. He was such a light and encouragement to students and faculty alike. There was absolutely nothing in this life on earth that he allowed to stand in his way. He was such an integral part of everything that went on. I can only imagine him free of his chair praising God without restrictions. Sending love, prayers and hugs to the family as you process through this. ❤️

“ In English 10 Braxton shared a few stories and memories of his hunting adventures. Through those stories his heart for his family and friends shined.

Here is an example from his writing: " The purpose is that hunting is something my dad and I can share together and allows us to spend time together as it brings us closer together."

Please know that you are all in my thoughts.

“ I met Braxton while he was sled skating with my son, Mitchell and his friends (who played hockey for The Ice Dogs) at a Griffs Ice House West "open skate" session. They were all classmates, and every kid in their class slowed down and gravitated toward Braxton that evening. He was a very nice young man, and I will never forget the smiles he left on all of our faces that night. I am so sorry for the loss to all of Braxton's friends and family.

“ I will always remember Braxton's huge smile and silly sense of humor. He was a special member of our 2nd grade class. He would bat those big eyes at me (as if that would let him get out of doing his work!!) and then laugh when I would say, "Nice try, Buddy!" I was always so proud of how independent he was when he used his "sticks" that year. Sending big hugs to Brinzie, Tressa and Chad.

“ I am shocked and deeply saddened to hear this news. I have all smiles remembering Braxton as a first grader. He brightened our classroom and was the kind of kid all teachers loved so much. My heart breaks for the family - I have faith that Braxton is happy in heaven with Jesus, our only hope in this difficult world.

“ I will always remember Braxton as a student full of life and laughter. He was such a shining light. I specifically remember when he came to our charity hockey game and wheeled himself over the bench to sit next to me. I definitely will never forget him. - Mr. Braymer
