

Brian TerHorst

April 30, 1977 - March 11, 2018

Brian TerHorst, a child of God, age 40, went home to heaven on Sunday, March 11, 2018. Brian was a gentle and loving son, brother, uncle, and friend. He worked as the fourth generation in his family's construction business of which he was very proud. He loved family and fishing and his BIG heart prompted him to help anyone in need. Even with his hearing impairment, he persevered to face life head on, nothing slowed him down. He will be dearly missed by all who knew him. Brian is survived by his parents, Randy and Pat TerHorst; sister, Kristin and Jason Haartman; brother, Scott TerHorst; nephews and nieces, Seth Haartman, Kasey Haartman, Xavier TerHorst, Jaysen TerHorst, Amelia TerHorst; grandparents, Shirley TerHorst, Robert and Vivian DeKoning; many loving aunts and uncles, and many more supportive and loving cousins. He is preceded in death by his grandfather, Donald TerHorst and cousin, Dan Koster. Visitation will be 4:00-7:00 pm on Wednesday, March 14, 2018 at Langeland Sterenberg Funeral Home, 315 E. 16th St. Holland, MI 49423. A Celebration of his life is planned for 6:00 pm, Thursday, March 15, 2018 at Harderwyk Ministries sanctuary located at 1627 W. Lakewood Dr. Holland, MI 49424. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in Brian's honor may be given to the Christian Learning Center or the Grand Rapids Oral Deaf Parent Teacher Organization.

“I am so sorry to hear of Brian's passing. I went to elementary school with Brian at Millbrook Christian. I remember when he was the "new kid" and all of us girls thought he was just 'so cute!'. I will always remember Brian as a kind person with a soft and compassionate smile. I am so sorry for his early passing and I truly hope his family and loved ones find peace where possible. With love and sincerest sympathy, Betsy (Vander Lind) Rosenbrook”
