“ "It was with mixed feelings that I received news of your dad's death. I know from his suffering that he was ready to go home to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. He is now in perfect peace and perfect rest safe in the arms of the Father. However, I share in your loss of a wonderful earthly father who was a beloved Pastor and friend to so many. I cherish the opportunity I had to get to know him while he was at Royal Park, a much different relationship than when we were kids. Your family is like an extension of my own so that the loss of both your parents is mine as well. My love, tears, and prayers for all of you during this time of grief. Glenn sends his deepest condolences as well. Sincerely, Janice Van Someren Meister"

“I have such fond childhood memories of Grandpa: his gift for storytelling, his laughter, and his readiness to spend time with us grandkids. I am thankful that he has left the suffering of this world is now at home.”

“I had the honor of having him for a Pastor when I was a young boy at Noordeloose, I lived across the street and him and Ethel watched us many times. I spent a lot of time there as a boy, he made so many little things in his work shop for me . His wife read books to us kids all the time. The day I made profession of Faith our Pastor was sick and Pastor Niewenhuis filled in for him, it was a special day. For my wedding gift they got me the book they used to read me when I was a child. He was a special man , who taught me so much about God.”
