“ Grandpa and grandma were a part of every event growing. We spent so many days living in sun and on the water with them on “the big boat”. Captain Calvy showing us how to tie off the boat, clean the grunge off the bottom, and letting us drive. The sweet smell of pipe will make me think of him along with peanuts! Brandon and I spent countless sleepovers with them hiding grandpas socks, having bananas and milk and playing golf in the basement. He always had a joke, would be ready to talk to anyone and was willing to lend a hand any moment he had. I will miss him a great deal but he has left behind countless great memories. Love you gramps

“ Cal was the best Grandpa anyone could've asked for!
He taught me how to play chess, basketball, fish and most importantly put God first!
I'll never forget his silly jokes, family prayers, and constant willingness to serve others!
Love you Grandpa!
