“Carla had two undeniable things; her love for Jim and her love for others. Carla's life was fraught with difficulties, but there was so much joy - and it's those memories I choose to hold onto. Many of us remember playing cards at her house, the sound of her laughter, and playing video games in her basement. I will always remember the first day of our vacation in the Dominican Republic, which happened to be mother's day. We lunched at Hard Rock Cafe, and she was given a free screwdriver; not the orange juice she was expecting. Afterwards, we sat in the park chatting for hours, and continued chatting for hours on many days after. She was always there to help others regardless of the challenges she faced. Carla twice cosigned loans allowing me to move to California becoming a physicist. My heart breaks with each thought of her, but I hope she is now happy with Jim.”

“I was a neighbor of Carla's for three years we shared many a dinner together at Clearbrook Country Club in Saugatuck and she would regale us with interesting stories of her youth in Holland Michigan. Carla was such a wonderful woman from knitting scarves for the Holland Police to distribute to helping those in need via her church she will really be missed. My condolences to her family I am sure your hearts are heavy at this time as is mine.
