

Carol Joy Kaper

June 25, 1960 - January 27, 2024

Carol Kaper, age 63, passed away on Saturday, January 27, 2024.

Carol was a patient, strong, and loving wife, mother, and grandmother; She had a big heart and a quiet strength; She was beautiful on the inside and out. She was a dedicated employee at Hamilton Food Center over the years and enjoyed tending to her flower garden in her free time. She was friendly, helpful, a good friend, and regularly attended her grandchildren's events. She was loved and will be dearly missed.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Elaine Viening; brother, Glenn Viening; and brother-in-law, A. James Kleis.

She is survived by her husband, Peter Kaper; son, Scott Kaper & Amberly Kauranen (Kolbee Kaper, Karson Kaper, one on the way); daughter, Tanya and Tim Koning (Daniel Koning, Gracelyn Koning); father, George Viening; brother, Scott and Jami Viening; brother-in-law, Robert and Marla Kaper; sister-in-law, Sal and Ted Fik; sister-in-law, Jackie and Paul Rozema; her nieces and nephews; and many close friends.

Visitation with the family is 5:00-7:00 pm on Wednesday, January 31, 2024, at Haven Reformed Church, 4691 Oak Street, Hamilton, MI 49419.

Memorial services are planned for 11:00 am on Thursday, February 1, 2024, also at Haven Reformed Church with Rev. Michael Drew officiating.

“ I was lucky enough to go on allot of the family vacations back in the day and I remember a trip in particular when Carol saw how many butterfinger candy bars I had, she asked if I was going to eat all those and of course I did. Miss those days!!! Peggy and I would like to send our condolences to the family! She will be missed!
