“ My Mother was the most Amazing Woman I ever met, I am so proud that I could her her Mom. She had a heart of gold and would help anyone. I loved to hang out with her and go shopping just taking a ride on the golf cart at the Pines. We loved the holidays together especially we cooked we baked and just had fun laughing. I will always love u Momma forever and always 💕 go fly high withthe Eagles Momma see u later my Angel

“ Carole was a kind and compassionate soul. She loved her Sandy Pines summers with family and the music programs at Chapel on Sunday evening. May God provide her a special place in his heavenly choir.
