

Cassandra Casares

June 22, 1990 - November 6, 2023

Cassandra Casares, age 33, of Holland, was welcomed into the arms of her Lord and Savior on Monday, November 6, 2023.

Having been born in Fort Worth, Cassie was a lover of “all things Texas” her whole life and will forever be a diehard Dallas Cowboys fan. Cassie exuded happiness and fun; she enjoyed talking to others and telling stories, enjoyed eating, and embraced life by making the most of every moment. Most of all, Cassie loved her family, and cherished being a mother to her two children.

Cassie was preceded in death by her grandmothers, Juanita Gonzalez, and Guadalupe Garza.

She is survived by her husband, John Garcia; children: Ava Ali Rios, Josiah Daniel Garcia; mother, Laura (Joel) Zuidema; father, George (Janie) Casares; sister, Ashley (Jake) Sleiman; nieces: Delilah, Laurayna, Idilia, Adalina, Ariella, Briella; and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

A time of visitation will be held from 3:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. on Sunday, November 12, 2023 at Langeland-Sterenbergh Funeral Home, 315 E. 16th St. Holland. Within the visitation, a brief time of remembrances will begin at 4:30 p.m. Memorial contributions may be given to Cash App: $Jgarcia61687 or Venmo: @Laura-Zuidema-1, where donations will help support Cassie’s two children.

“ When she was I think 3/4 years old she was messing with the outlet on the bathroom and she kept sticking g her finger in it. I warned her to stop doing it or she'd get zapped/shocked well guess what, she didn't listen. Miss thing continued to stick her finger in the outlet till she got shocked. That was her stubborn and hard headed as a mule, but I loved her anyways. I wouldn't trade her for anything.
