I made a mistake when I said my room was kitty corner from Cheryl at Appledorn. Medilodge was called Tendercare then.

“ I met Cheryl four years ago when I started taking care of her at Medilodge. We had a lot of good laughs together. She fought hard but I know it was her time to go. She will be missed but I know she's happy now. It was a pleasure to have taken care of her. Rest in Peace ❤️ You are loved.

“ I took care of Cheryl for the last two and a half years. She enjoyed her TV game shows, and most of all house hunters. She loved to talk and to listen. She will be missed.

“ I will always remember Cheryl. She had a very happy and positive spirit. Working as an RN at the Nursing facility, she made my day much brighter. Mostly because she was a caring friend who loved the Lord with all her heart and accepted what her He put in front of her. I was blessed to have made such a good friend.

“ Hello my name is Janey Torres I was one of the cnas that took care of Cheryl she is gone but not forgotten she kept to herself but was always nice to me I will miss taking care of her and seeing all her colorful socks and her telling me about the books she was reading from the times I would take of her even if it wasn't much but just the little moments counted my deepest sympathy to the family
