

Clara TenHarmsel

July 23, 1935 - November 19, 2024

Clara TenHarmsel, age 89, of Zeeland, passed away Tuesday, November 19 at Quincy Place in Holland.

After emigrating to America at the age of 12, Clara began working in the banking industry as a young adult, eventually retiring from Huntington Bank. Clara and her husband, Harvey, worked hard to ensure all of their kids had a Christian education. When not working, Clara loved being involved in her community. She was a charter member of Bethel Christian Reformed Church in Zeeland and served as the church secretary for many years. She enjoyed knitting for her family and also for countless charities. Clara was known for giving a hand-knit pair of socks to anyone needing comfort. She loved traveling with Harvey; whether it was a month in Florida or throughout the country for TPA's annual conventions.

Clara was preceded in death by her husband, Harvey TenHarmsel, in 2011, and siblings Jert Jellema, Tina Koetje, and Alice Genzink.

Clara is survived by her:

“ I's sorry to hear about the passing away of my cousin Clara. The elder daughter of Corrie(Kay) and Jochum (Joe) Jellema. My mother Wietske was Jochum's youngest sister. My husband and I met Clara when she visited Friesland maybe 10 years ago. She travelled with her son and daughter in law. We met at the house of Jan and Annie Poeze. In the meantime I lost a lot of relatives. Sietze and Truus Luinstra, Jean (Zus) Turvey Luinstra, Jan Jellema (elder son of Jurjen) and his wife Coba, My husband passed away in Janaury 2023. My sister Aaltje is also a widow. Lyn - we met in our shop in Leeuwarden many years ago. You were still a young person. Maybe 20 years or so. I will pass on this information to my sister Aaltje in Germany.
