“ "Ray As we close the first day of the New Year, Carol and I think of you and pray you are doing as good as can be expected. We can't help but reflect on the beautiful memorial service for Cindy. It certainly brought good memories of the great times we spent together over the years. In Christian love, Bob & Carol."

“ "Uncle Ray and family, We ask for God's grace and comfort during this difficult time, but yet rejoice in Aunt Cindy's homecoming. We have many fond memories of her sparkling laugh, her generous hospitality, and of course, root beer floats at family gatherings! Our deepest sympathies and prayers are with you all."

“Ray Swierenga: You have our sympathy at the time of your loss of your beautiful wife Cynthia. We have only met you one time at my daughter's wedding, but I know you and Cynthia have raised some great Christian children as I worked with Brian. I know this will be hard time for you but you at least have the peace of knowing Cynthia is in no more pain or suffering. God is Good. Oh death where is your sting. God Bless you and your family.”
