“ I met Dave in January 1970 when I had just come home from Viet Nam and so had Dave. I am my wife, Henny, maintained a relationship with Dave and Carolyn through all these years. Dave was a humble, generous, hard working Christian man. He and Caroline were very gracious people. When my 8 year son was in University of Michigan Hospital with Cancer in 1986, Dave and Carolyn had me and my older son over for dinner (my wife was at the hospital with my son). It meant so much to me and my son and was so typical of the kindness and caring of them as a couple. In the last few years as we have had a major health issue in our family, they had us over for dinner or pie and coffere quite a few times. That is the kind of people Dave and Carolyn have always been. I admired Dave's many talents and work ethic. Most of all I my wife and I will miss him as a Christian friend.
