“Our deepest sympathies are extended to you and your family and loved ones. I remember meeting you at Ridge Point years ago and someone saying "Dave and Cindy, meet Dave and Cindy"! We were deeply moved by your testimony following your son's death and have observed your faithfulness even during this incredibly difficult journey of Dave's illness. We will continue to pray for you and cling to the promise of life everlasting when we will see Jesus and our loved ones who have gone before. With love and prayers, Cindy & Dave Nyhoff”

“These notes are all so beautiful, and so descriptive of the Christ follower Dave was. Ed and I are heartbroken for your families. Cindi, your hospitality hosting Ben on those crazy Sunday afternoons following Dave's commitment to spending time with Ben once in awhile spoke volumes about you ... and Dave - and your boys! Dave's smile always invited conversation, and we are so very glad he is celebrating eternity right now with his son and with all those who have gone before. Our prayers go out for all of you - family and friends. There's no way to replace a man of that calibre. May God hold you and uphold you in the days and years to come.”

“My late husband, Jim Watkins, and Dave were teammates and great friends at JWC. They introduced Cindy and I and we became great friends as well. A blessing that has lasted 2 lifetimes, so far. Cindy and I kept stats at their college basketball games. We were suspected of padding the stats for "our guys", but they were really so good, it wasn't even a temptation. We had a lot of good times. When Jim died in 2007, Dave was heart broken, especially after they had lost Kyle just months before. In spite of his sorrow, he sent me numerous emails to help me along. Cindy did the same. On a lighter note, a story that stands out in my mind about Dave flying. He took Jim and, I believe Bob Dippold, up in his plane and had a bit of trouble and nearly hit a wire of some sort and thought they might crash. It shook them up so much, I heard the story over and over for the next 30 years. It was also quite a shock the night someone drove their car through the front door of Dave and Cindy's home. Oh yes, and we can't forget how cool they looked in their yellow Corvette. Anyway, Dave was a wonderful man with strong faith. He will be rewarded. I look forward to seeing that great smile again one day. I love you Cindy, you know that, and I'm so very sorry. I'm sorry for Brad and his family and all who will be missing Dave. I'm sure he and Joel, Jimmy and Kyle will be having a great time together.”

“Dave was a wonderful person and one that I can say was a true gentleman. My contact with Dave was always on a pleasant upbeat note. He was an excellent listener and had a a sincere empathy that is so rare these days. He obviously was an great judge of character, since many of the people he has hired over the years at Siegers Seed Company are the excellent employees I come in contact with every day. . Anybody can call themselves a Christian but Dave was one that thought and lived as a true Christian each day of his life. My life has been made better for having known him.”
