“ Dear Gay Lynn, deepest sympathy and prayers to you and your family in this time of sadness and deep loss. I was so very sorry to see your moms obituary today. You were a dear daughter to her and I hope your years of memories give you strength for the difficult days. May our Lord bless you with his peace that passes our understanding and may you be comforted knowing your mother is safe and pain free in the loving arms of Jesus. Thoughts are with you.

“ Della was such a special lady. We met when she came to us at Resthaven rehab, but we became knitting buddies and always liked to share what we were working on with each other. I was always awed at how she could knit so many things from memory, and she was so generous with her handiwork. I will miss her so much. ❤️
