“ Sis Dora was the sweetest. I have gotten to know her over the years as we attended Cornerstone Tabernacle together. She always called me her "Movie Star for Jesus" because I was the praise and worship leader! I loved being able to hug her and Sis Maria and practice my Spanish with her. She will be missed <3

“ Dora was a wonderful God loving lady. She was very generous with the prayers and support for people in need. We enjoyed sharing food back and forth with her and her husband when they lived in fennville. We are so ever glad that we got to know her. Dora will always be in her family's heart. Sending prayers
