“ I am so grateful to have known Doris when she lived at Royal Park and I was serving there as chaplain. She was such a lovely person. She cared deeply about her family, sharing prayer concerns for family members who were struggling. I could always tell when she was going to go out for breakfast with her son because she would be waiting for him to pick her up in the lobby well in advance of his arrival time. My sympathies to all of Doris' loved ones. Sincerely,
Cindy Nyhoff

“ Bev I am so sorry for your loss. I remember talking to mom at RPP and she always had a smile and a beautiful soft spirit. You were blessed to have her as an example. May God surround your family with His  love.
