“Carolyn, chad, & Chris, We were sorry to hear about the passing of Doug. We always enjoyed having your family as neighbors when we lived on Beth Street. Watching Father and sons out on the driveway playing basketball or playing catch with the baseball was always an enjoyable activity to watch. He was a great dad, for sure!! and a wonderful neighbor, Doug and I had some great ping pong matches down in your basement, a good competitor with a sense of humor. We are down in Florida and were unable to attend the funeral service, We will remember you in our prayers and may God comfort you !!”

“We are so sad for your family. So many great memories, from the bleachers at West Ottawa, so many laughs on boating trips, the famous Kalamazoo River retrieve, and of course the Bayou. Just a really great guy with a terrific family. Sorry we are so far away, but we will be there for support soon. Hugs, love and prayers, Denny and Jackie”
