“ "I last saw, and talked to you mom, 2 years ago this last summer. We were both at the Max bus stop at Younkers dept. store, we exchanged pleasantries, and what all the "kids" were doing. She was quite strong for being 91, and I told her of my aunt Gladys, who was also 91, but not nearly as mobile. I asked if she needed any help or if I could do anything for her and she said she was well and could get along fine. We wished each other God's blessings and said good buy and went our separate ways. I was so blessed to talk to her and find out about all you "kids". I'm sorry to read there will be no gathering, so I wish each of you and you families the best for 2016, and that it will be one of your best , full of wonderful memories, and maybe we can say high to each other over the internet, or what else."
