Daniel is survived by his father, Michael Baez; grandmother, Lisa Bell; grandfather, William Baez, Jr; aunt and uncle, Erica and Michael Ciparelli; cousin, Silas; and half-sister, Bella

Daniel's precious life was taken from us far too soon.

Daniel is loved, missed, and cherished. He will live in our hearts forever.

Thank you, Janice. I appreciate that. It's a painfully difficult and sorrowful time for all of us. We are all carrying a grief that no family should ever have to endure. We will always be connected through them, and through the love, sorrow and pain our families now share.

“ Danny was such a sweet, fun soul. Always kind. Always respectful. He was curious in learning in all the right ways and seemed to always be ready to help. I'm sad we didn't get to know each other better, young man.

“ Esh was always the person who could "figure it out". She always made it work, even when she was working with nothing. Such a powerhouse of a woman, even standing straight around 5'3" tall. She had quiet authority that everyone respected. If you needed it, she'd give it. I remember her making enough food to feed 6 people from a can of chicken, 2 ramen packets and a half a block of cream cheese. I already miss your face, Esh. I only wish I could have shouldered your pain better for you.
