“ What a lovely lady. I got to know her a bit while visiting my mother at the Good Shepherd's Home. She was always gracious, and had a calm dignity about her. I know my mother will miss her too. Grace and peace to the family

“ Many years ago, as a member of Maple Avenue Church and a student at Calvin Seminary, I went with Esther along with others to visit the workers at the blueberry fields north of town. More recently we met when the Grace Gospel Band played at Warm Friend. I am sure she heard the words "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter the joy of your Lord."

“ Esther was a wonderful woman. My memory of her is helping out during Mac Rec in our clubhouse. She always loved kids.
