“ Gene (as we affectionately referred to him) was a perfect gentleman and soul mate to my dearly beloved friend Margaret. Though I wish they had more time to explore life together; I am thanking God for the joy he brought to Margaret's life and the dreams he made come true for her. Above all else he encouraged her to accompany him to church on a regular basis and for that I am ever grateful. Rest in peace dear Gene. Margaret we love you and are praying your strength in our great God! Anything we can do to comfort you we are one phone call away.
