“ "Dear Evenhouse Family, I was so sad to hear the news about the passing of your precious and loving Mother! I will be praying for you and your family as you are grieving now and in the days to come. I love and cherish the memories I have of when our family shared time together with yours and consider myself very blessed to call your parents "Auntie and Uncle"!! With much love, Amy (De Jong) Postmus"

“ "My condolences to Fannie's darling family. Fannie lived her faith for as long as I have known her. That goes back to Chicago. Her faith was never in doubt; she lived it every minute. She was a treasure."

“We are so sorry for your loss. We have many memories of our trips with Ed and Fannie. Many great years of partnership in business, which developed into friendship. Such a blessing that they are both with the One whom they loved beyond measure, Jesus Christ. Rest well, Fannie!”
