

Geneva DeBoer

February 16, 1920 - June 14, 2017

Geneva (Scholten) DeBoer, age 97, of Holland, passed away at the American House on Wednesday, June 14, 2017. Geneva was preceded in death by her husband, Fred, her son, Kenneth and a grandson, Jonathon. She was a member of Central Avenue Christian Reformed Church and enjoyed many years of singing in the choir. She is singing today with the heavenly hosts and is now reunited with many friends and family who went before her. Geneva worked at Holland Motor Express and then went on to work at First National Bank until her retirement. She was a meticulous numbers person and until recent years, still kept that check book balanced to the penny. She loved to travel and made trips to many states and countries. Geneva is survived by her sister, Esther Robbert, step-brother, Roger (Barb) Scholten, daughter-in-law, Merry, grandson, David (Marla) and great granddaughter, Cassidy. The DeBoer family would like to thank the people at American House and Hospice of Holland for their wonderful care of Geneva. Funeral services will be 12 p.m. noon on Monday, June 19, 2017 at Langeland-Sterenbergh Funeral Home, 315 E. 16th St. Holland with Rev. Chad Steenwyk officiating. Burial will be in Pilgrim Home Cemetery. Visitation will be one hour prior to the service on Monday. Memorial contributions may be given to Hospice of Holland. www.langelandsterenbergh.com.
