“ Erika, Sam and all of the Zepik family,
I too am saddened by Mike's passing, but am also comforted knowing that he is in God's loving care, is no longer suffering, and lived a great life.
Mike was a good friend in so many ways. He welcomed us into his home, he laughed with us and he taught us. He was smart yet humble. He was so gifted musically. A few of us sang together in a little folk group in addition to being in choir and musicals. We had a great time and most of that was because of Mike.

I hadn't seen him in years, yet we did not live all that far away. So even in his passing he continues to teach us: Love God, live fully, stay in touch with family and friends.

*May God's grace comfort you.

“ So blessed to have known George. He shared his joy for life with everyone he met. Even in the toughest times he had a smile and a story to share. I learned so much from him about life and living in faith. He will always be my favorite storyteller and I can still hear him leading worship songs. Sing on , George, you're home with Carol now.

“ When I was a teen I used to go to church with Mike at Benton Harbor. After church on Sunday I would often go home with Mike and his aunt Goldie. We would stop and get hamburgers and then go on to Mike's house for many a fun filled afternoon. Another memory of Mike that I treasure is that he loved to sing in church as much as I do. We had some enjoyable times singing together. I look forward to singing with him again someday in God's kingdom.

“ A Civil War Poem, in memory of my friend, George. I loved being able to talk about the War with him. My family's sympathy to you. R.I.P. George...you will be missed."He had trusted in the Savior, When with health his pulse beat high,And to those who truly love him, He is ever, ever nigh.Cheering by His precious promise, Guiding by His gracious will,"Fear not I am with you ever, To the end I'm with you still!"Where the sunbeams love to linger, And the gorgeous flowers caress,'Neath the fragrant grove of orange, They have laid him down for rest.Rest from every care and trouble, That around our pathway lies,Rest until the last great trumpet, Shall bid every sleeper rise."

“ While his departure has left those who love him with a great deal of sorrow, I can only imagine the overwhelming joy he experienced when he heard "Well done, good and faithful servant".

“ I am happy that he is at rest! He has suffered without saying anything! Hopefully the family can begin to heal! He appointed me as his "comedy guy" for his recovery from liver transplant! I don't really know what I would do with that. If it is any comfort to the family....I did have a plan to carry that out.
