“ "We will always think of Jerrie with love. We lived next door to her & Jay on 8th Street for a few years and she was a wonderful neighbor. When our son was born 20 years ago she came over soon after we arrived home with a hot meal ready for us. She was so thoughtful and considerate! We have enjoyed visits with her over the years since we moved and were always touched by her thoughtfulness even when she was struggling with health issues. May God grant each of you peace and strength in the days ahead."

“Our sympathy to your family. I have good memories of our work together at South Side Christian School. She was a caring person and served the students and staff well. May God bless as you remember and celebrate her life.”

“Jerrie was kind and always welcoming. As a neighbor on 30th Street she had a way of making me feel at home in her home when. She was a great example of God's grace on earth! Dan and Ann Wolbert”
