“ "Nancy can't even imagine the pain of losing a parent. I can only share when Jim was on the operating table . They had a hard time keeping him alive. His brain had gone flat. He was close to death door. He was at the gate of heaven. He describes it as... white bright, happiness, present of others but unable to say who they were. God's was felt. Jim said the peace was so wonderful. No words to describe. You feel totally fulfilled. No pain no sorry. Music. He pleaded to stay. Jim was told he had purpose. Today I have him. But he has never been my Jim. Things don't matter on earth, it's just in passing. When life ends, our new life begins. Hope this helps you to know your dad is in heaven. Your family is in my prayer"
