“ "Harvey was an always happy inclusive sort of guy and everyone looked forward to seeing him and to the cake he brought to Monday coffees! He was wise and understanding and helpful to others. He was a very good friend and support to Leon Vander Zwaag when Leon was dying and Leon appreciated Harvey very much. He was amazingly insightful and had a way of honing in on issues in a kind way. He loved to talk about his children and was thankful for them and appreciated them. He and my mom jointly saw the foot doctor and always had a good time together, despite the foot travails. I join you in the thankfulness of knowing him and am so sorry for your and our loss."

“I am grateful to have known Harvey, first from serving together on welcome teams at church for years, and then reconnecting with him at Royal Park Place and Royal Atrium Inn. His passion for sharing Jesus' love with others was an inspiration to me. He loved to share the baked goods his family brought in, and his love for spending time with his family was evident - he would be ready in the lobby well ahead of the designated pick up times. In what seems like only a short time ago, he was as delighted as a school boy to go for a ride with the activity director on the golf cart to deliver some mail...I'm not sure if she let him drive or not...My deepest sympathies to Harvey's family and loved ones. I am sure he has already greeted those in glory who he led to Jesus! - Sincerely, Cindy N, Chaplain”
