“ What a testimony to a beautiful marriage! Seventy-one years is amazing. Aunt Honey and Uncle Tyke were caring and loving friends and traveling companions of my parents Elmer and Laura Van Dyke. They were a special Aunt and Uncle to me too. I have many fond memories of our families doing things together when I was young. I also treasure the lunches and conversations we have had in the last few years. I remember how proud she was to tell me about all the members of her family. Aunt Honey will be missed.

“ Hi Al,

My deepest sympathy to you in the "home going" of your beloved wife, Honey.

I pray that you and your family may feel the comforting presence of our merciful God as you grieve her death.

“ I have a special place in my heart for Aunt Honey. After my mother died, Aunt Honey so reminded me of her and kept her present for me. I will truly miss her voice and smile.
