“ "Dear Meier family, may God comfort and strenghten all of you in the loss of your wife, mother and grandmother. Gese and me visited the Meiers first time at the end of 1977, when Beatrice and Gladys took us in their car to their home from Calvin. We have so many good remembering. On my office table there is still after 40 years the little box with three crosses on it, to put in pencils etc. God bless you Gerrit Jan and Gese Beuker, now Neuenhaus"

“Bea - so sorry to hear about your mom! She was a beautiful woman in many ways. She will be missed. I can remember going to the French Pastry many times (loved the butter creme frosting).
Give your Dad a hug from me.”
