“ "Hester was truly unique in demonstrating the love of her Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. She always smiled and sent get well cards and was willing to help in anything. I was privileged to have known both Hester and Ed. And enjoyed playing for services there for about 40 years, Hess on the organ and me on the piano. Hester, make sweet music in Heaven! Make God grant the family memories and peace."

“Mrs. Berghorst was a very nice lady. I can still see her in the kitchen ironing with her shorts on. She will be missed.”

“My sweet Aunt Hes was indeed a Proverbs 31 woman. She saw lovingly to all the needs of her family and so many others and always with a smile. I have fond memories of Sunday evening visits at their home in Zeeland, I would always look forward to games with the cousins and the yummy food Aunt Hes had so lovingly prepared. What a blessing to know she is in glory with Uncle Ed and we will see both of them again someday!”
