“ "I am so grateful to have known Irene while she lived at Royal Park Place. She was a graceful, friendly presence. I loved seeing her chat with her friend Juliet. They would attend worship services and activities together, and sit in one of the alcoves chatting for hours. My heart ached for her when her son passed away so unexpectedly. My sympathies and prayers are with her loved ones. Sincerely, Cindy Nyhoff, Chaplain"

“So many fantastic memories of my dear Auntie Ike. She loved so many of us as her own, count yourself blessed if you had a hot dog wrapped in bacon with four tooth picks. No matter what, she was in your corner. Sometimes even if you didn't deserve it, unending grace and care. Even though I moved 2,000 miles away Auntie Ike's touches are in my home. Towels crocheted by her, potholders crocheted by her. Uncle Johnny will be happy to have his bride back with him.”
