Sorry for your loss Gladys. Irvan was a kind, humble good man. I have kept you and Irvan in my prayers since I last saw you at the hospital. I will always remember him marrying me on the Holland Princess, and you and Irv's friendship with my Grandparents, Denny and Arloa. Although I'm sure your heart aches right now, I'm so glad to know that in time we will all be together again in heaven!

“ I remember being charter members of Community Reformed Church and Rev Jungling being our first minister. My dad was on the consistory and sometimes they would meet at our house. We visited them camping at Silver Lake. He married Duane and I 45 yrs ago. He baptized my daughter and then performed her wedding ceremony over 20 years later. Now as a nurse she took care of him in the hospital. So many memories. Hugs to the family. Rest in Peace Rev Jungling. 🙏 Duane and Deb (Vredeveld) Lamer

“ Irv was a man of grace, faith, integrity, and prayer. He set the table of love for all those who followed in his footsteps. He will be remembered by many but replaced by none. This earth has lost a giant of the faith but heaven is rejoicing at his arrival. May God's seeking comfort find all those who loved this special man. Dr. Dann Stouten
