

Jacqueline Lungaro

November 26, 1937 - November 6, 2022

Jacqueline Louise Lungaro, age 84 of Holland passed away in her home, surrounded by her loving family on Sunday, November 6, 2022.

She is survived by her children: Anthony and Rebecca Lungaro, Lisa Lungaro and Michael Rampanelli, Tricia and Michael Cranmer, Therese and Jason Combs, and Rose and Chad Bays; her grandchildren: Julia Lungaro, Vincent Lungaro, Dominic Cranmer, Katherine Lungaro and Cody Smothers (Bentley, Bailee, Henri), Matthew McAllister, Madison McAllister, Elizabeth Bays, Isabella Bays, Gianna Bays, Kyle Rampanelli, Tyler Rampanelli, and her sister-in-law Antoinette and Ron Bonato, and many nieces and nephews.

Jacqueline was preceded in death by her husband Pascal in 2010 and her mother Georgia Bryles in 2007.

Jacqueline was a member of Saint Peter Catholic Church in Douglas; the World Apostolate of Fatima and a Third Order Carmelite.

Jackie was born in Chicago, Illinois, on November 26, 1937, and although she was an only child, she developed a beautiful relationship with her mother that would shine brightly her entire life. She was adored by her mother, (fondly known to all as “Gee”) until Gee’s death in 2007. Jackie was married to Pat on May 1, 1965. Over the years they would add one boy and four girls to the family. In 1978, the Lungaros would move from Calumet City, Illinois to Fennville, Michigan. Jackie worked hard as a stay-at-home mom and would spend her extra time volunteering around her community to special causes close to her heart. Jackie, known to all those that loved her as “nana”, simply relished in the fact that her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren were all within a short drive of her home and would enjoy spending time with each of them. Her biggest passions included praying for those she loved and especially an end to abortion, making sure her life “notes” were complete and spending 360 days before each Christmas picking out, purchasing, and wrapping the perfect Christmas gifts for those that she loved.

Visitation will be 2-4 and 6-8, with Rosary prayers at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, November 10, 2022, at Langeland-Sterenbergh Funeral Home, 315 East 16th Street, Holland. The funeral mass will be 11 a.m. Friday, November 11 at Saint Peter Catholic Church, 100 Saint Peter Drive, Douglas, MI. A luncheon will follow at the church. Interment will be in Douglas Cemetery. “ I met Jackie many years ago at the restaraunt I was working at. I was just thinking about how we met this past week. Jackie was with some friends and they had ordered specialty burgers. The kitchen told me their order was ready and when I brought it to their table and was placing the burgers in front of them I realized that while the specialty toppings were all there, there were no burger patties on the bun. We all had a good laugh over burgerless burgers that day and many other times when they'd come back to visit with me over lunch. I always enjoyed seeing their smiling faces coming back and got to know them well over the many years I worked there. 💕

“ Aunt Jackie, the KINDEST, NICEST & SWEETEST person we've all had the Blessing of being our Sister and Aunt. FAMILY and Faith were first among her many wonderful qualities. We've been fortunate to have caring and loving Aunts and Uncles, each one of them having a special place in our hearts. Aunt Jackie, you were missed the moment we learned of the Cross you carried with LOVE and DIGNITY. We pray we'll have the same courage and strength you showed in our own journey's of life. 🙏 With LOVE, Lisa, Gina, Mary and Jim Galullo 🙏
