

Jacquelyn Van Dam

April 19, 1933 - January 19, 2025

Jacquelyn Van Dam, 91, of Holland, passed away on Sunday, January 19, 2025.

Jackie was born in El Dorado Township, Illinois, on April 19, 1933, to Donald and Agnes Shaver. She was their one and only child. The Shaver family moved to Holland, Michigan, and Jackie was a longtime server at Had's Restaurant on 16th Street and River Avenue. Jackie was a wonderful mother and raised her son Mark Weaver in Holland. She was Mark's greatest fan in his multiple sports interests. One of her favorite pastimes was skiing with Mark at the several ski areas in Michigan. Jackie later started working at the Holland Country Club where she met John Van Dam and eventually, they married. Jackie and John were avid golfers and loved to socialize at their favorite restaurants and conventions for John's business around West Michigan. They also enjoyed wintering in Florida, traveling, reading, and doting on their multiple beloved cats in their lifetime together. In 2018 John preceded Jackie in death after 46 years of marriage.

She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law Mark & Jennifer. Private family services will be held.

Arrangements are by the Langeland-Sterenberg Funeral Home, 315 E. 16th Street, Holland MI 49423.
