“Peanut, I still remember the very first day I met you, you were so little. Watching you grow up into the young woman you became was a joy. The way you’d light up any room you stepped into, regardless of the pain you were feeling, was an inspiration for all. You carried your crown the same way Jesus did, with strength and courage to face whatever came your way. Not a day has gone by that I haven’t prayed for you and sweet Landyn. My heart broke hearing you had passed, so young, gone far too soon. I don’t know where you stood with our Lord but I pray you are flying high with our one and only source of strength. You will be forever missed sweet girl. I’ll always love you and cherish the many laughs (and tears) we shared. I’m sorry I couldn’t be there but know you are forever in my heart. Love always 💕💕💕

“ Oh my gosh my Peanut, how I miss you so much already your beautiful smile, laugh just your presence. So much to take in, one thing I do know you were a believer of God and I know you prayed diligently so it helps rest my mind knowing where you are and I know you're so happy now no more pain dancing with your Walla you have missed her so much. I love you Peanut
