“ Kathy, my wife and I returned from Palm Springs, California to learn of Jim's passing. Shocked and stunned doesn't begin to describe my emotions. Jim and I go back to seminary days. We had lunches here and there to discuss his book regarding a theology of sexuality. Jim's book was a hit in our church in Palm Sprngs. He was special and irreplaceable. Kathy, accept my condolences along with the remainder of the family. May Jim rest in peace and perpetual light with all the Saints.

“ Dear Family,
I'm just a person of the Catholic Church. To notice January 23rd is not unusual for me. Three things happened to my Mom and I. Years ago, my brother passed of AIDS. Thirty three years young. Jesus I Trust in You. Stockbridge.
This gentleman now rests in His loving arms. Peace.

His faithfulness and dedication have changed many lives, including mine. RIP*

“ I'm just a random person, not someone who knew Dr. Brownson personally, but his work was hugely impactful on me when I was in the process of coming out. He had a positive influence on so many people and I wish his loved ones all the best.

“ I am immensely thankful for Dr. Brownson and his work! Bible, Gender, & Sexuality met me at a moment of questioning and need that was very similar to Dr. Brownson's own story. With thoughtful depth and compassion, he laid out a revisionists path to stay faithful to the text of the Bible while accepting its questionable lines with context and understanding! Thank you, Sir!! You have enriched my life and that of family and friends with whom I've shared this milestone work!!! Gods speed!

“ We are deeply grateful to Jim Brownson for sharing his academic brilliance and the love of Christ with our LGBTQ families. His was one of the first books I read, at least twice, to glean the nuggets of his theology and to hear his heart of love for our children. My husband, Doug and I got to sit with him at a Reformation luncheon and considered it such an honor just to know him and be there with him. We are deeply grateful for his life and legacy and send his family all our love and gratitude. Surely, his life is celebrated on earth and in heaven with all the angels and saints. With love and gratitude, Shauna and Doug Habel.

“ I will be eternally grateful for the encouragement and education i received from Dr Brownson’s books and seminars. Part of his legacy will truly be his profound and courageous efforts to teach about biblical truths and theology. The fruits of the Spirit were lavishly reflected in his grace and humility. He made a great impact on me and countless thousands of others.
